

At Last

"At Last" is a 1941 song written by Mack Gordon and Harry Warren for the musical film Orchestra Wives. Unreleased recordings of the song, however, had been made in 1941 by Glenn Miller. An orchestral version of the song without lyrics first appeared in that movie in 1941. A new version was recorded by Glenn Miller and His Orchestra in Chicago on May 20, 1942,

At last my love has come along,

My lonely days are over

And life is like a song.

At last the skies above are blue;

My heart was wrapped in clover

The night I looked at you.

I found a dream that I can speak to,

A dream that I can call my own,

I found a thrill to press my cheek to,

A thrill I've never known.

You smiled and then the spell was cast,

And here we are in heaven,

First Time:

For you are mine at last.

Last Time:

For you are mine at last.
