

Chattanooga Choo Choo

"Chattanooga Choo Choo" is a song by Harry Warren (music) and Mack Gordon (words). It was recorded as a big-band/swing tune by Glenn Miller and His Orchestra and featured in the 1941 movie "Sun Valley Serenade".. In 1996, the 1941 recording of "Chattanooga Choo Choo" by Glenn Miller and His Orchestra was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame. There is some doubt as to the route this train took and many even think it did not leave from track 29. It was however conceived by the writers on a rail trip to Chattanooga, put the rest down to making it rhyme!

Dinner in the diner, nothing could be finer

Than to have your ham an' eggs in Carolina.

When you hear the whistle blo win' eight to the bar,

Then you know that Tennessee Is not very far.

Shovel all the coal in, gotta keep it rollin' --

Woo, woo, Chattanooga there you are.

There's gonna be a certain party at the sta - tion,

Satin and lace, I used to call "funny face."

She's gonna cry until I tell her that I'll never roam.

So Chattanooga choo choo, won't you choo-choo me home?

Chattanooga choo choo, won't you choo-choo me home?
