

THE GLORY OF LOVE

4/4 1...2...123 W. J. Hill 1936

You've got to give a little, take a little, and let your poor heart break a little

That's the story of, that's the glory of love

You've got to laugh a little, cry a little, before the clouds roll by a little

That's the story of, that's the glory of love

As long as there's the two of us, we've got the world and all its charms

And when the world is through with us we've got each other's arms

You've got to win a little, lose a little, and always have the blues a little

That's the story of, that's the glory of

That's the story of, that's the glory of

That's the story of, that's the glory of love

First recorded in 1936 by Benny Goodman, The Glory Of Love was a track on Sir Paul McCartney's 2012 album Kisses On The Bottom. It was written in 1936 by Billy Hill, an American songwriter, violinist and pianist who rose to fame composing popular Western songs. The Glory Of Love was his most popular work. In 1951 it became a hit for the R&B vocal group The Five Keys. Their version topped the US R&B chart for four non-consecutive weeks, reportedly selling over a million copies