

Long Ago And Far Away Words & Music by Ira Gershwin & Jerome Kern, 1944

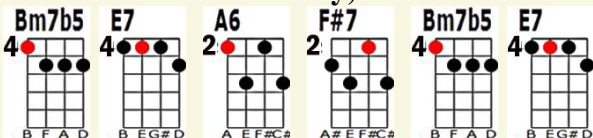

Much to Ira's surprise "Long Ago (and Far Away)" became the biggest hit that he'd had in any one year, and sheet-music sales were over 600,000. No doubt the sentiment of the song was apropos to a time when families and lovers were separated by World War II. In addition to the six versions that charted, Glenn Miller and Frank Sinatra also recorded the song in the '40s:

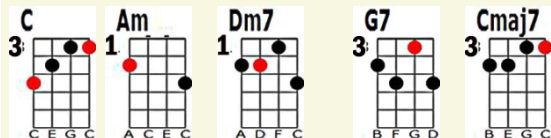

Long a - go and far away,

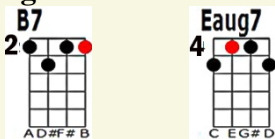

I dreamed a dream one day,

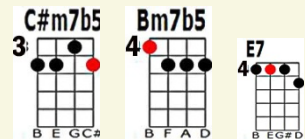

And now that dream is here be-side me;

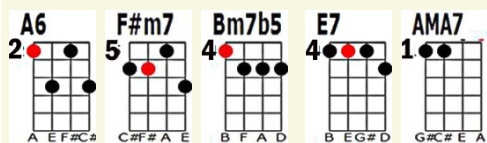

Long the skies were o-ver- cast,

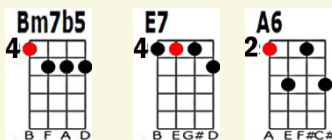

But now the clouds have passed;

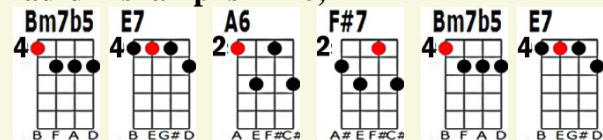

You're here at last!

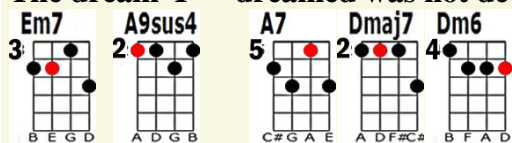

Chills run up and down my spine;

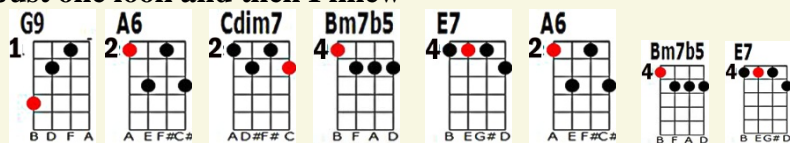

A-lad-din's lamp is mine;

The dream I dreamed was not de - nied me.

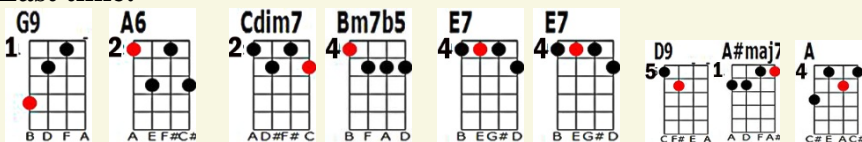

Just one look and then I knew

That all I longed for long a-go was you.

Last time:

That all I longed for long a-go was you.
