

Stairway To The Stars

Words & Music by Mitchell Parish, Matty Malneck & Frank Signorelli* Recorded by Glenn Miller, 1939 (#1) Vocalist Ray Eberle, with Glenn Miller's orchestra, recorded "Stairway to the Stars" in May, 1939. Their record hit number one and stayed in the charts for 13 weeks. It was Miller's second number one record. On May 17, 1939, Miller performed the tune during a live broadcast from the Meadowbrook Ballroom in Cedar Grove, New Jersey, and on May 29, from the Glen Island Casino in New Rochelle, New York. This type of air play brought the number to the attention of the public, so once the record was released there would already be a ready audience.

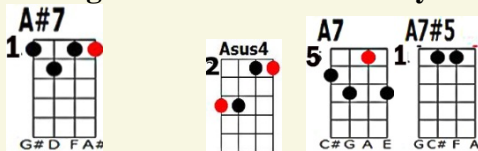

Intro:

There's a silver trail of moonlight Leading upward to the sky,

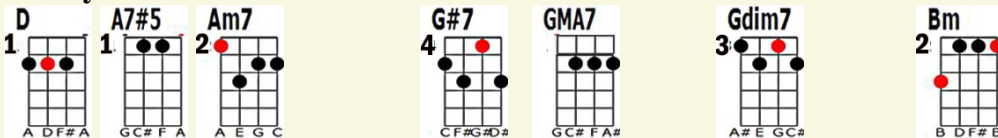

And the night is like a velvet lullaby. There's a heaven of blue,

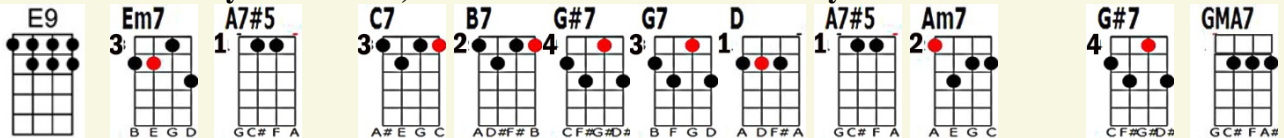

And we'll go there, just you and I.

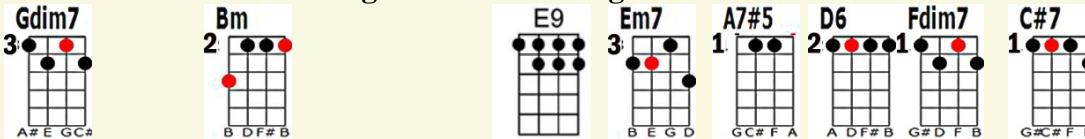

Melody:

Let's build a stairway to the stars, And climb that stairway to the stars

With love beside us to fill the night with a song. We'll hear the sound of violins,

Out yonder where the blue begins; The moon will guide us as we go driving along
