

Performance version (April 2012)

Start Note

A song written on September 10, 1938 by Hoagy Carmichael with lyrics by Frank Loesser. As well as being recorded by Carmichael himself, the song has been performed and recorded by a number of artists. In 1939 the song was performed by Bob Hope and Shirley Ross in the film Thanks for the Memory.

We sing this through responsively and duet. No Brian melody solo.

TWO SLEEPY PEOPLE

Words: Frank Loesser Music: Hoagy Carmichael (1944)[ Brians Simplified version]

S Here we are, out of cigarettes,

B Holding hands and yawning -- look how late it gets.

Two sleepy people by dawn's early light,

And too much in love to say goodnight.

V2

S Here we are, in the cozy chair,

B Picking on a wishbone from the Frigidaire;

Two sleepy people with nothing to say,

And too much in love to break away.
