

You Belong to Me Pee Wee King, Redd Stewart and Chilton Price 1952

Chilton Price, a songwriter, had written the song in its entirety as "Hurry Home to Me" envisioning the song as an American woman's plea to a sweetheart serving overseas in World War II. Afforded songwriting credit in exchange for their work in promoting it, King and Stewart did slightly adjusted it, shifting the focus from a wartime background "into a kind of universal song about separated lovers" and changing the title to "You Belong to Me"

C E G C    A# E G C    A C F A    A D F# C    B D G B    B F G D

I'll be so alone without you

Maybe you'll be lonesome too And blue

C E G C    B E G D    A C F A    C E G C

Fly the ocean in a silver plane

See the jungle when it's wet with rain

A C F A    C F G# D    C E G C    A E G C    A D F A    B F G D    C E G C

Just remember 'til you're home again

You belong to me

(Bridge) I'll be so alone without you
And blue

Maybe you'll be lonesome too

Fly the ocean in a silver plane
Just remember 'til you're home again

See the jungle when it's wet with rain
You belong to me
